

Eliza Nordeman marries Blake Davis

Eliza Pratt Nordeman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacques C. Nordeman (Anne W. Stillman) of New York and Southampton, was married on July 22, 2017, to Blake Tamblyn Davis, son of Mrs. Wahleah Faulkner Davis of New York, and Carl B. Davis III of Beaufort, SC. The ceremony took place at St. Andrew's Dune Church, followed by a reception at the bride's family home, both in Southampton.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. B. Stillman (Eugenia Watters) of New York. She is also the granddaughter of the late Mrs. John J. Ballantyne (Nordeman—Marion Cone) of New York and the late Jacques Coleman Nordeman, also of New York. She is the step-granddaughter of the late Mr. Ballantyne.

The groom is the grandson of the late

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Faulkner (Leeona Jenanne) of Tulsa, OK. He is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Davis Jr. (Marianne W. Hoover) of Golf, IL, and Delray Beach, FL.

The rehearsal dinner was a festive Mexican fiesta held at the Bridgehampton Club. The following day, Mrs. Davis, wearing a gown designed by Bob Evans, was preceded down the aisle by five flower children, including the bride's goddaughter, niece, and nephew, as well as the groom's niece and nephew. The wedding ceremony was officiated by The Reverend Peter M. Larsen.

Mrs. Davis attended Kent School and is a graduate of Trinity College. Mr. Davis attended Brooks School and graduated from Williams College.

The couple took a wedding trip to Blackberry Farm in Walland, TN, and make their home in New York.

Left: Mr. and Mrs. Blake T. Davis.