Courtney Springman marries Brooks DuBose

Courtney Louise Springman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Springman (Sondra Gault) of Atlanta and Bluffton, SC, married Brooks Easter DuBose, son of Mrs. Charles Wills DuBose (Diana Brooks Easter) of Camden, SC, and the late Mr. DuBose. The ceremony took place in Bluffton on May 21, 2016, at Waterside Chapel at Palmetto Bluff. Dr. Chuck Roberts, pastor at Peachtree Presbyterian Church in Atlanta, officiated. The wedding ceremony was followed by a celebration at Montage Palmetto Bluff, with a dinner and reception held on the May River Lawn, and dancing afterwards in the Oak Ballroom.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Gault Jr. of Bellwood, PA. She is also the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gervase Springman of Altoona, PA.

The groom is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Easter (Virginia C. Follett) of Lake Forest, IL, and Charlottesville, VA. He is also the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perkins DuBose Jr. (Edith Wills) of Camden.

The bride wore an Oscar de la Renta gown and a cathedral length veil, also worn by her sister when she married. She carried a bouquet of pink peonies, along with her grandmother's handkerchief. The bride's sister, Brooke Springman Brennan, was matron of honor, with Miss Edith Wills DuBose, the groom's sister, standing as maid of honor. The groom's cousin, Douglas Follett Easter, served as best man. The ceremony and reception music was provided by Equinox Orchestra of Savannah, with the Right on Band of Virginia Beach performing afterwards in the ballroom.

Mrs. DuBose is a graduate of the University of Virginia. She also received a master's degree from Emory University.

Mr. DuBose is a graduate of Hampden-Sydney College.

The couple took a wedding trip to Italy and make their home in Charleston, SC.
