

Victoria Whitney and Paul Griffith are wed

(Nancy Hindra) of Churchland, VA.

The bride wore a dress by New York designer Sarah Seven, with her bridesmaids in dresses from Anthropologie's BHLDN collection. The mother of the bride wore a custom dress by Boston designer Daniel Faucher.

Mrs. Griffith is a graduate of Wesleyan University. Mr. Griffith graduated from the University of Virginia. The couple met while studying at the University of Virginia School of Law, of which they are also both graduates.

The couple took a wedding trip to the Maldives, where they enjoyed a week of snorkeling and fishing for their dinner in the Indian Ocean. They currently make their home in New York.

Victoria Dumaresq Whitney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. P. Whitney Jr. (Doelger—Victoria Milbank) of Dedham, MA, was married on May 6, 2017, to Paul Maxwell Griffith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Griffith (Rosemary C. Stiegler) of Moon, VA. The ceremony and reception took place at Turkey Hill Plantation, a hunting retreat in Ridgeland, SC, purchased in 1939 by the bride's great-grandfather Jeremiah Milbank.

The bride is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Milbank Jr. (Andrea Hunter) of Greenwich, CT, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. P. Whitney (Joan Blake) of Boston.

The groom, known as Max, is the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Stiegler (Helen Sweeney) of McLean, VA, and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Griffith
